Westmont High opened it's doors to Campbell and Blackford students in September of 1984. Today on our staff we have twelve members, (the largest number in the district) who remember when our school opened with 1,266 students. Today there are 1,451. In 1968 there were approximately 2,000 students flooding the school. The entire cafeteria was full with study hall students. Drama class met on "the stage." Can you believe every classroom being used for classes every period?

We think an article in the first Warrior's Shield sums up the feelings of our school in it's beginning.

> "Because Westmont High School is new, we as the first students, have a chance to inject spirit into our school now without the hinderance of a poor tradition. By being spirited now, we will set a good example for the future students of Westmont High to follow."

The students were taking their first steps on the path of Westmont's future. We are continuing a proud tradition.

A LOOK AT AFTER HOURS

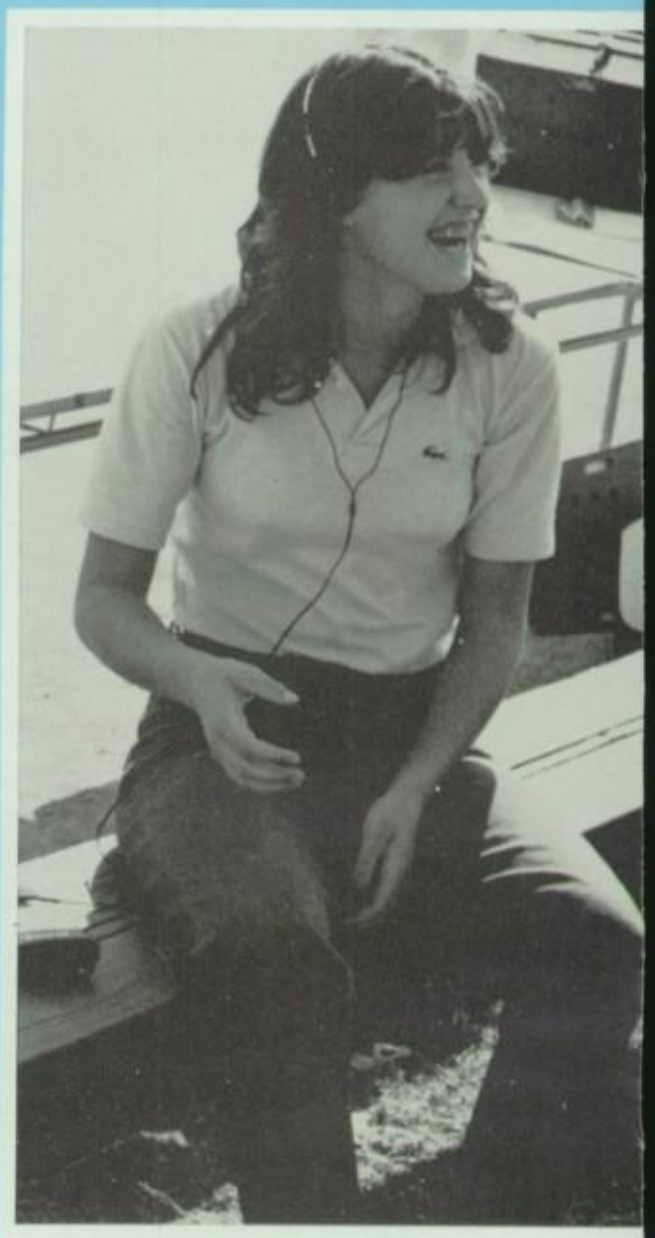
It's Friday afternoon at 2:45, and the fun is about to begin. Fun for Westmont students ranges from listening to music, to talking with friends. These are the moments we look forward to all through the school week.

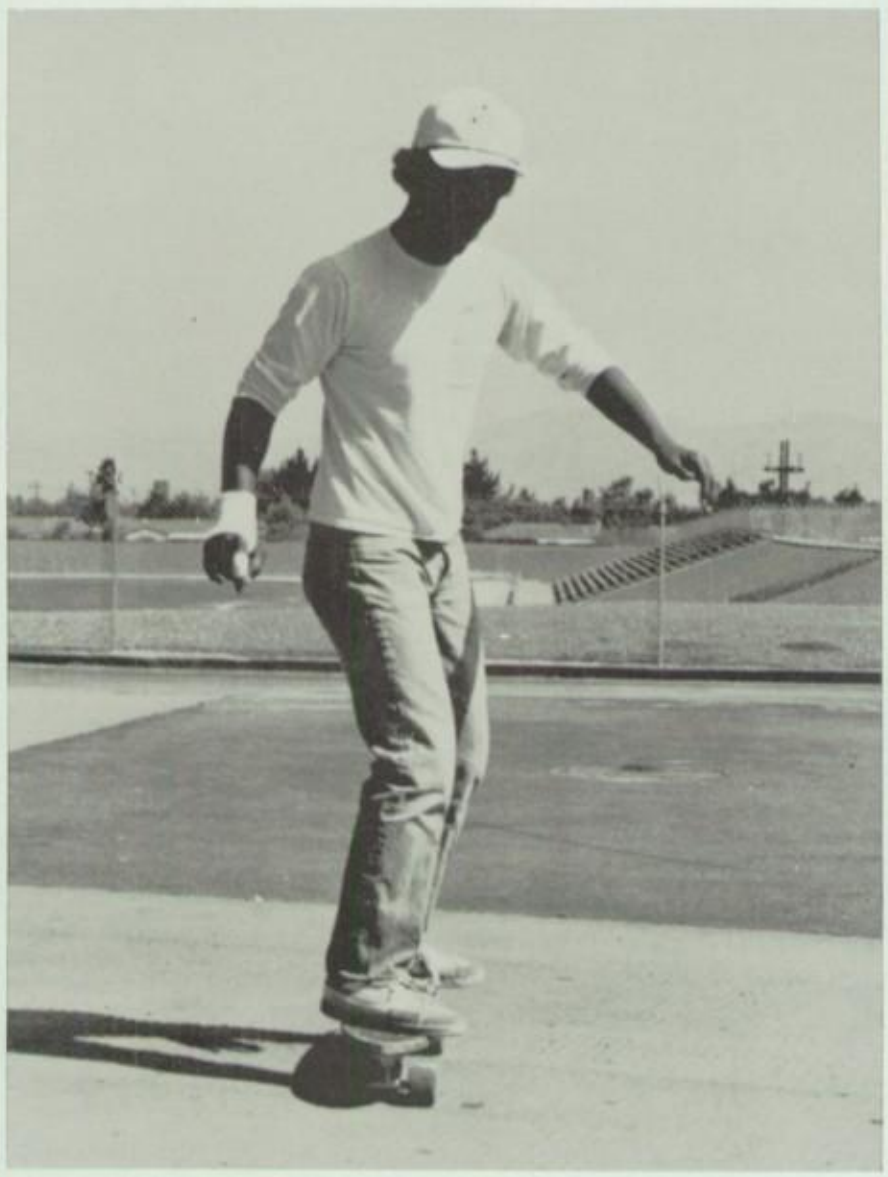
Even though radios are not allowed on campus, that doesn't stop the students from expressing their musical taste. Everyday you can see a variety of concert T-shirts on the backs of eager rock fans. Now and then you may see someone with a radio or tape player on campus, but it's usually after school.

Parties are the highlight of our spare time. You can be sure that every weekend there is at least one party in progress. Graduation is an event which creates many of the parties.

The great pastime of a majority of the student body is movie going. The movies range from the blockbusters such as "E.T.," "Raiders of the Lost Ark," to the horror of "Friday the 13th" Part 3" in 3D and Class of 84. Movies take up a large part of the gap from Friday afternoon to Monday morning.

These precious moments that each student seems to thrive on to get them through each day, not only hold the majority of our high school memories; but give us some of the best times of our lives.





"Every age has its pleasures, its style of wit, and its own ways."

Nicolas Boileau-Despeaux

Walking through the Westmont halls this past year, one may have noticed many popular fads. The typical valley girl talk of "I'm sure" and "like totally" could be heard echoing throughout the corridors of Westmont High School.

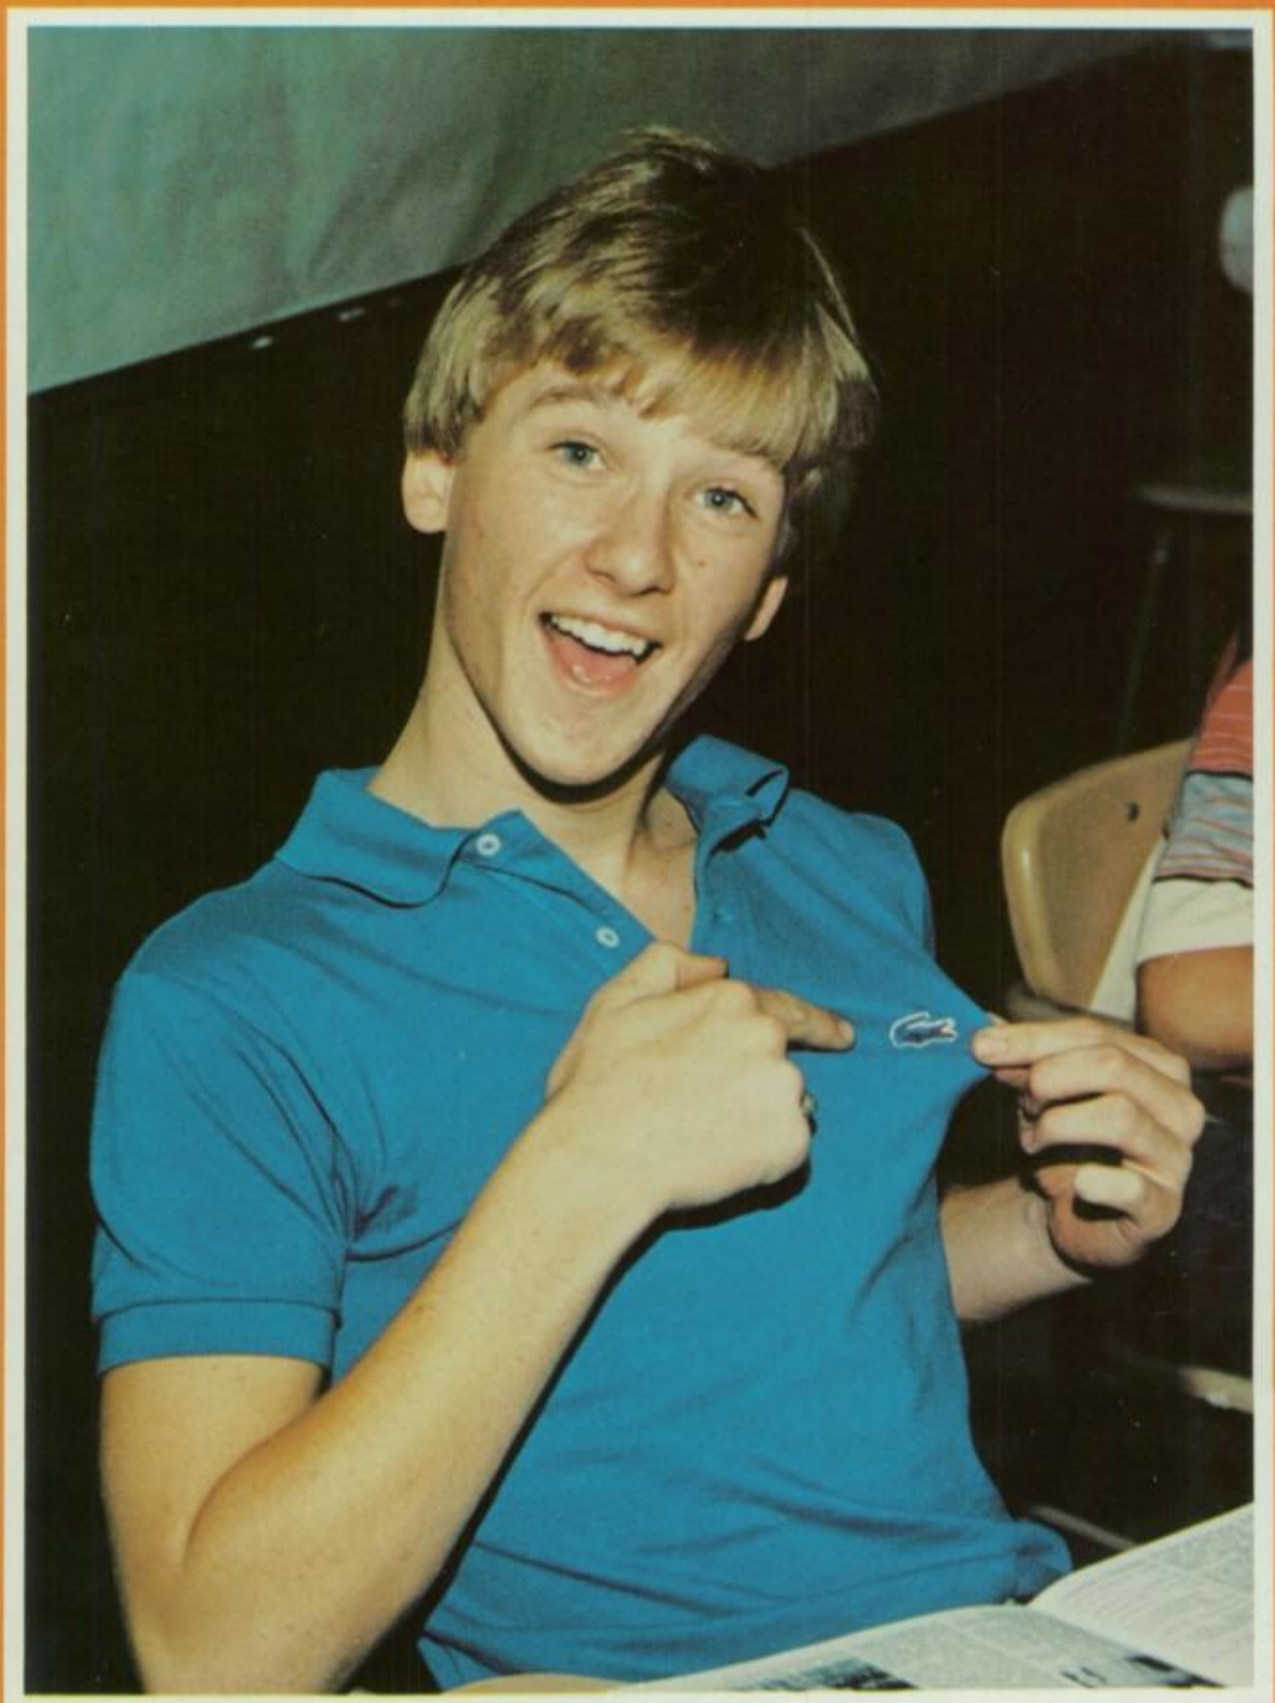
Another fad that hit Westmont was "New Wave." The New Wave people were very proud of their different style of dressing, radical music, and ideas. These people added color to our student body and depth with their radical views.

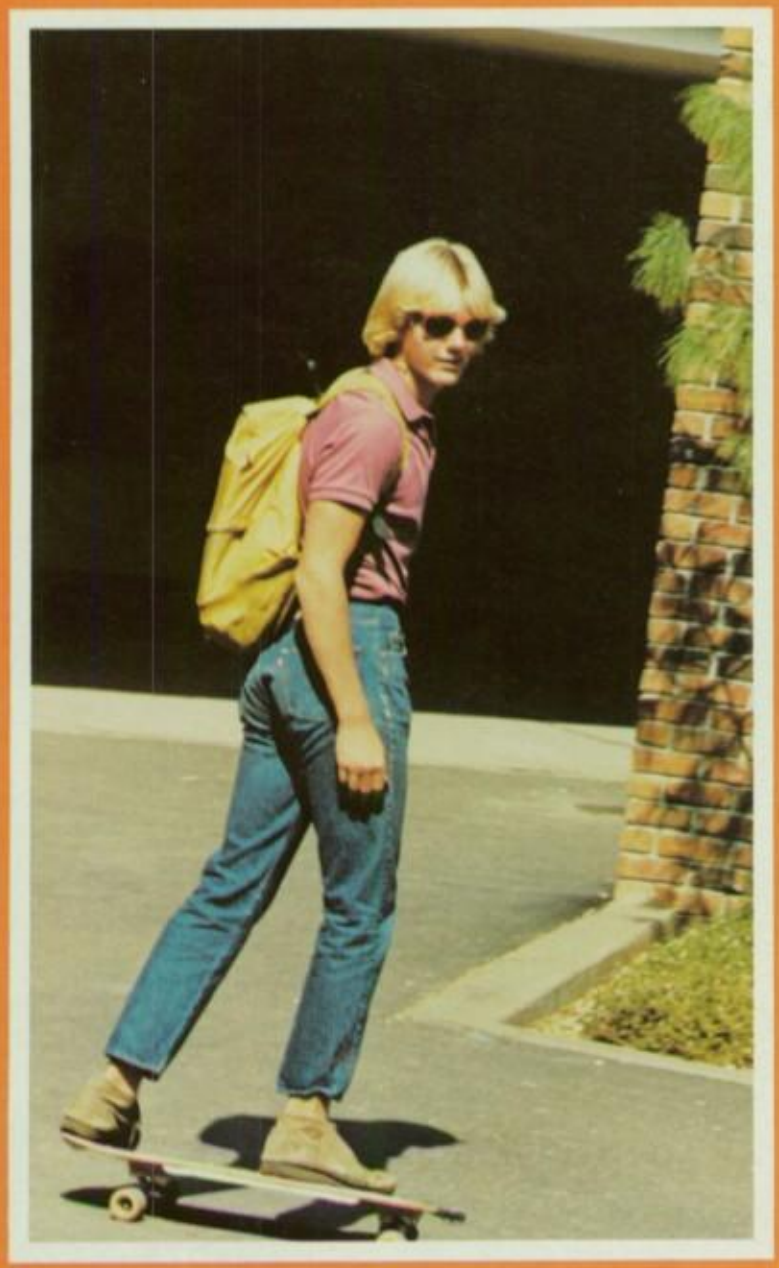
Skateboards could be seen zooming through Westmont just about any hour of the day. These riders have become highly skilled on their boards and trick skateboarding became more popular as the year progressed. Fortunately, many Westmont students have also become masters in the art of dodging these crafty riders.

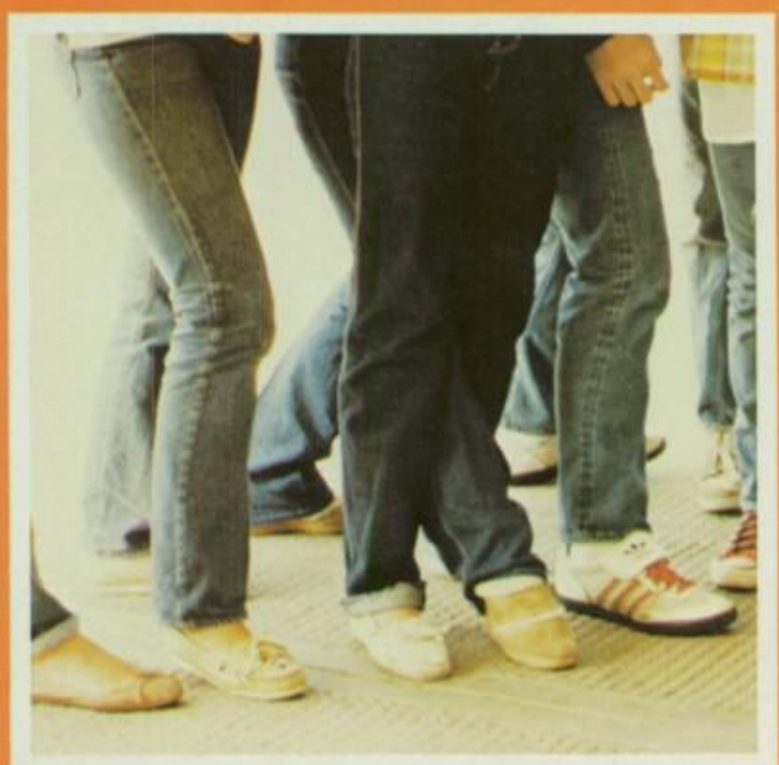
The surfer trend was back again at Westmont with growing numbers from last year. Varnees, O.P. shirts, Khaki shorts, and a certain "look," would classify one as a surfer throughout the campus. These surfers seemed to have a great ability to maintain the "tan" look all year long. Surfers were in a laid back, mellow kind of way, an asset to the campus.

The Sony Walkman was a subtle fad that many of the Westmont students "rocked" to. After hours students could be seen grooving to the tunes coming from their earphones.

The sound of bells ringing and lights flashing was embeded deep in the minds of many of the Westmont students. Video games made Merlins Castle something of a local hangout. Spending quarters can be somewhat addicting and expensive as many of the students will testify.







FADS

Fads: What can you say about them? They're here today and gone tomorrow. Each year our campus is flooded with various fads of the day and the year of 1982-83 was no exception.

As the summer came to a close and the Westmont campus came to life, fashions from summer invaded the hallways. One of the highlights for the young ladies was mini-skirts. These came in a wide variety of styles, lengths, and colors.

For the young men of the campus, Vaurnets and other types of shades were in fashion this year. With the boy's continously wearing "specs," it was inevitably hard for the girls (or anyone for that matter) to tell where the boy's eyes were.

In slight degrees, New Wave fashions came into action. Bright and faded colors as well as wild styles appeared more and more as the year continued on.

Among these newer fads, the somewhat older, but loveable "preppies" were still in. La Coste shirts were seen in colors varying from solid white to pink with turquoise stripes.

In the shoe scene, vans and pumps were the latest rage, as well as topsiders and ballerina shoes.

The French or tuxedo look was a definite fad this year. Bowties or ruffles could be seen throughout the hallways every day.

Althogether, the students of Westmont have their own unique fad that never fades away. That is the unity of the student body and the memories of their Alma Mater, Westmont High.

FRIENDS

The smiles and laughter will be remembered for many years,
Both good times and bad times,
with happiness, and tears.

Remember the friends you made;
they'd cheer you up when you were blue;
That one special person whom you desperately wished you knew.

Remember the happy times you spent with friends at soccer games or track meets;
The thrill of Westmont's winning and the agony of defeat.

Remember, the weekdays were too many,
the weekends too few;
teachers and classes ----
the homework you didn't do.

All of these things are part of your high school years,
like dances and parties,
football games and cheers.

The days passed so slowly,
yet the years fly by;
your heart will always hold memories,
of your Alma Mater, Westmont High.

CLIQUE

A clique is a sub group of society held together by mutal identity of interest or purpose. Here are some of Westmont's outstanding, (or shall we say, standing-out) cliques.

AGS : Are Westmont's home-grown cowboys.

PREPS : Are into school spirit and student council.

PUNKS : Are the revololution in cliques.

LOS CHICANOS : Are distinct in their style of dress.

MODS (surfers) : Are into new and different ideas.

HEADS : Are another feature of Westmont society.

DETERMINATION

Doc's chemistry scholars demonstrate future potential with their creative experiments.

The renowned Ken Malcom conducting the Westmont Symphony Orchestra.

Students diligently preparing for their future.

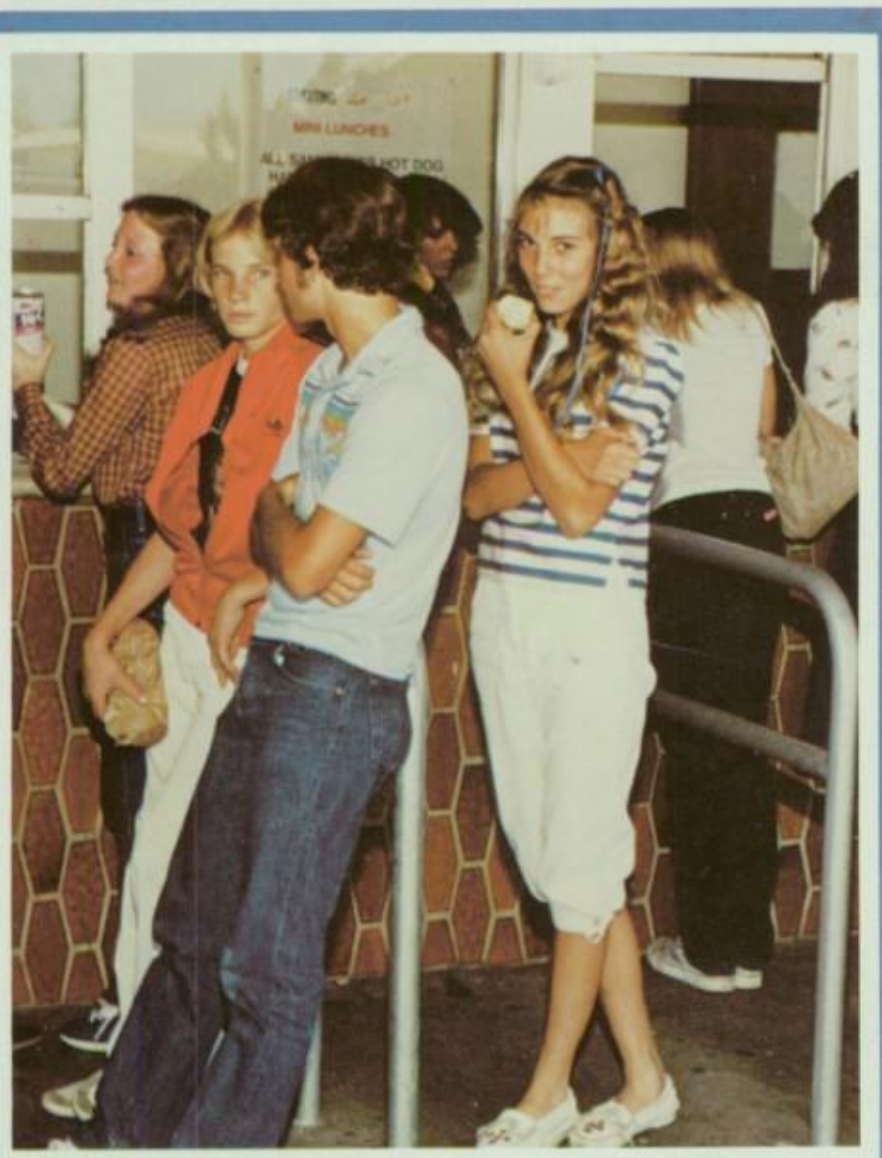
LUNCHTIME

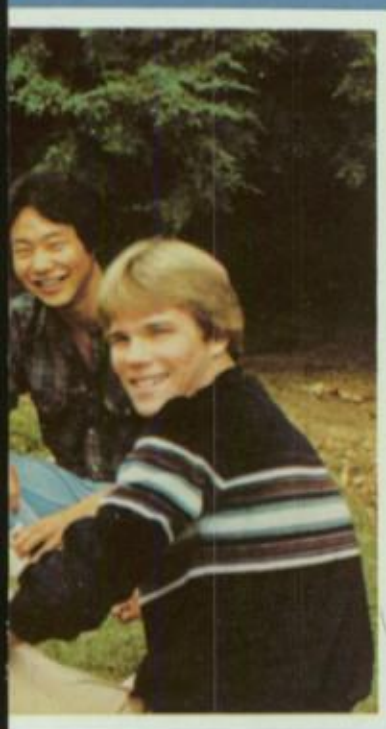
During the first periods of the day almost every Westmont student is looking forward to lunch time. Restlessness grows toward the end of each class; quiet rooms become flooded with growls. During the last few minutes of their classes, students find themselves dreaming of the twinkies in their lunchbags. The bell rings, mobs storm to their lockers, throw in their books, and run over to the lunch lines. As famished students viciously demand their orders in the "a la carte" line, volunteers scurry about trying to find food to please everyone.

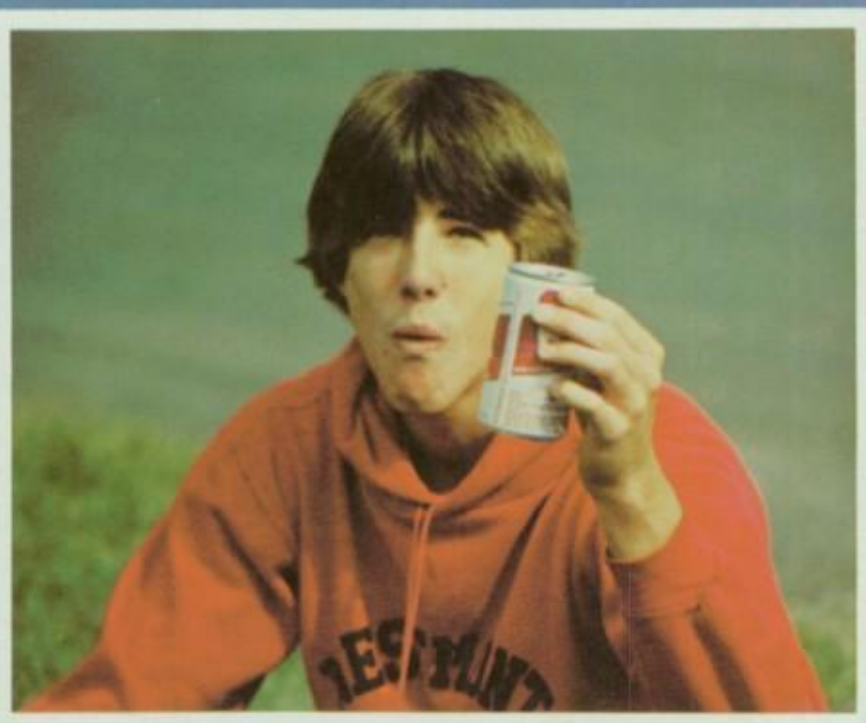
After they finally get their meal and pay for it, they sit down with their friends to eat their worries away. No one has to anticipate a watchful teacher looking over their shoulder or to lecture them. Friends have time while they eat to catch up on each other's gossip and to discuss the up-coming weekends. Football players discuss game plays, while others talk about new and old loves.

On those humid, hot days a cold refreshing Hi-C bought from the snack bar quenches dry throats quickly. Milk cartons are seen all over the campus throughout the lunch period because Westmont milk drinkers are "drinking milk for good."

As the end of lunch nears, the atmosphere becomes more relaxed. The bell summons students, who rise slowly and return to class. Lunch is over.







ACTIVITIES

Kick Off Rally

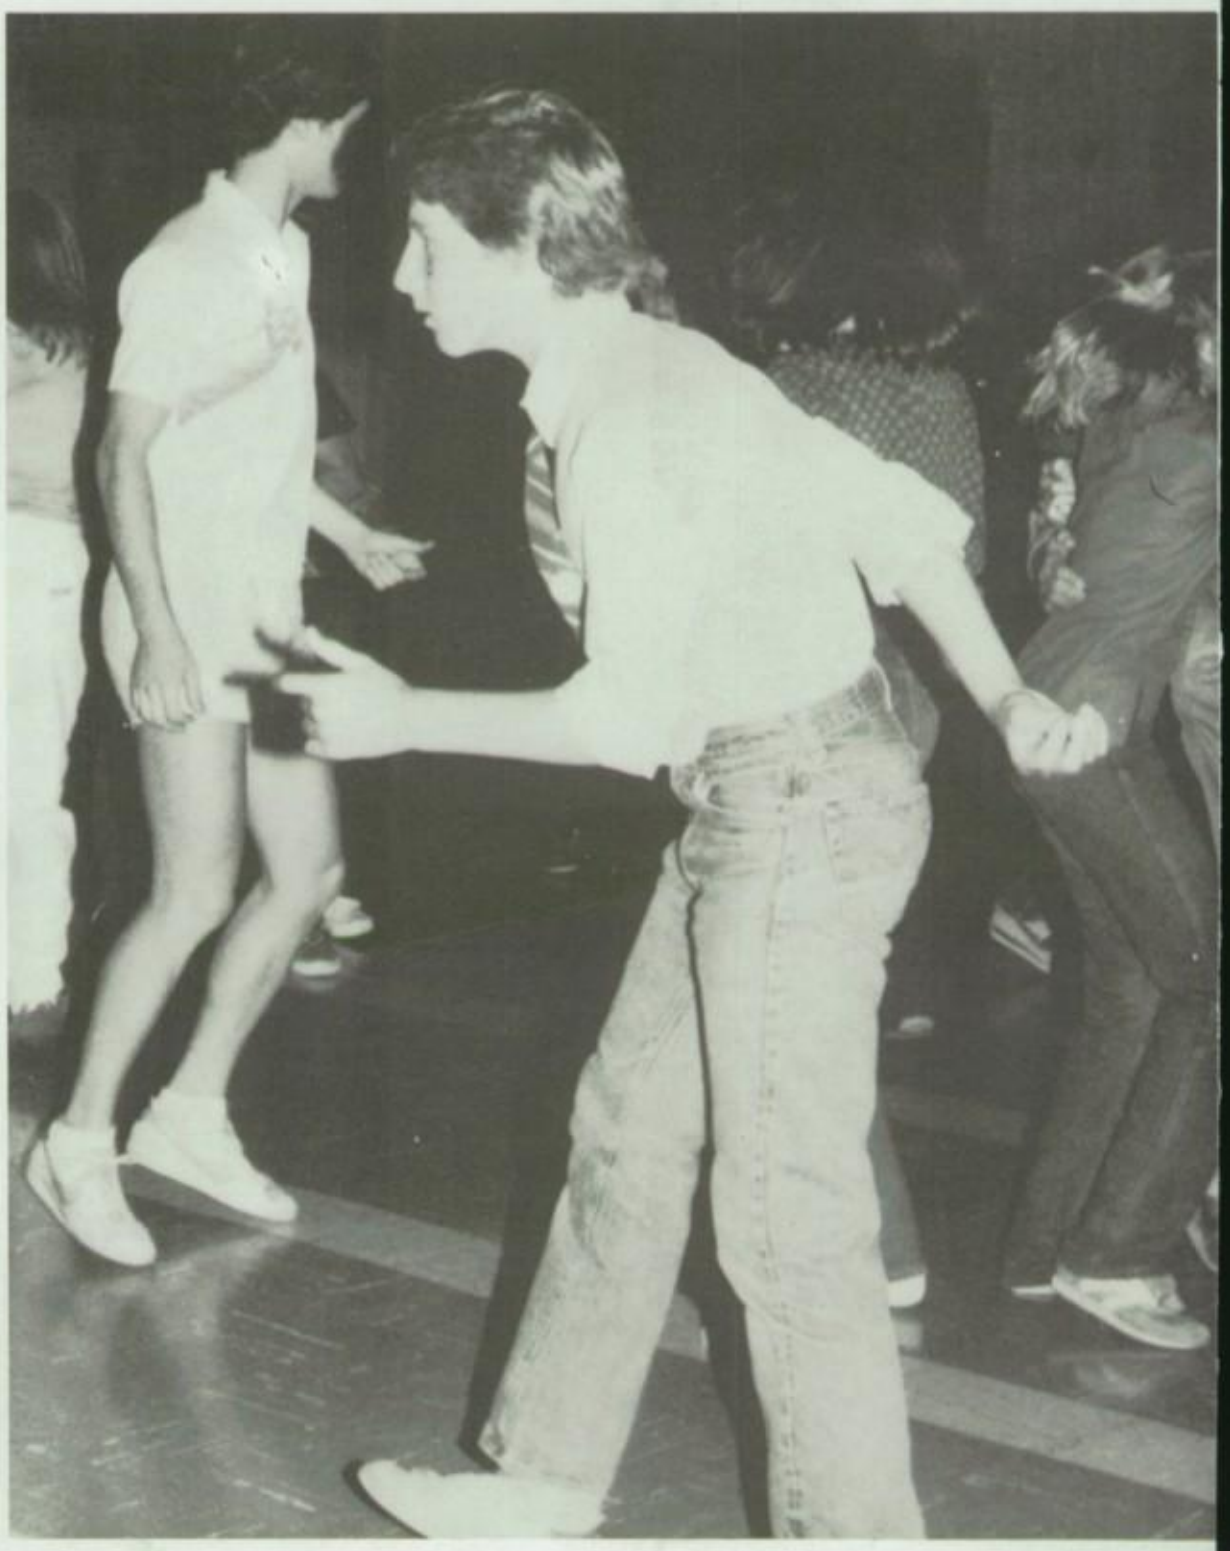
It was time for back to school. Back to the hard work and fun times. The time to greet old friends and make new ones was here. During the first weeks of school, everyone is eager to get into the spirit of things, and the rally board did a good job of accomplishing just that.

The rally board crew joined together with a boisterous Westmont student body to cheer on their favorite football team into hoped-for domination of the rival Los Gatos Wildcats in an extended brunch rally held on Friday, September 31, 1982 in the jam-packed gymnasium.

The rally came complete with football-playing cows, a truant officer, cheerleaders, and the football players themselves. What a way to say "Welcome Back!"

KICK-OFF DANCE

Some students were home watching television; others were busy driving their cars up and down the quaint streets of Los Gatos; still others were busy visiting friends or family, making fudge, eating fudge, joining Weight Watchers Anonymous, or spending time at the local gym. A small select group, however, found entertainment, friends, exercise, and a feast of fine music at the Westmont Kick-Off dance, sparsely attended but always-to-be remembered by those who were there.



RALLY

This year at Westmont we had many great rallies. One of the best was the second rally; the theme was "T.V.". The So-phis-ti-cated Hulk made an appearance that day as he rescued a helpless Westmont student who was getting brutally beaten up by some punks. Batman and Robin were also there discussing the "awesome" Westmont Warriors.
The Varsity Cheerleaders did a cheer to beat Los Gatos, while lots of cheering came from the crowd which was backed by the band.

HALLOWEEN

DANCE

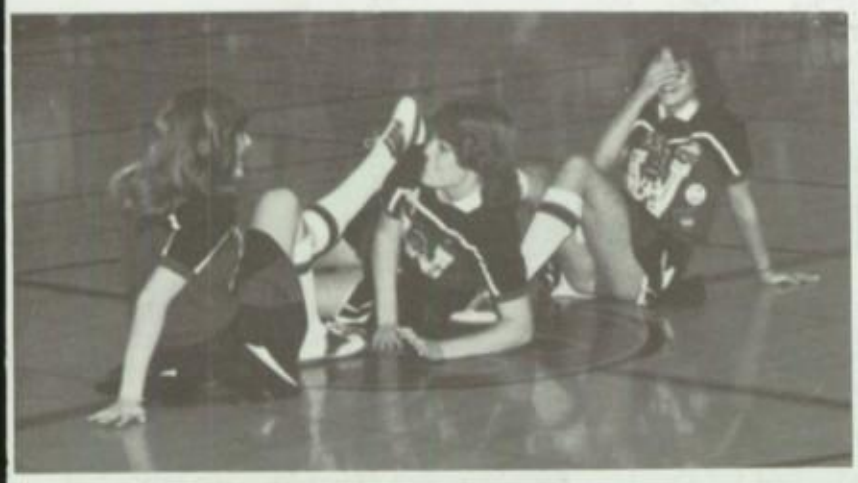
At this year's Halloween Dance our band was "IMAGES." They played a variety of popular songs. People were dressed as everything from INVISIBLE MEN to CAVEDAVERS. A morbid coffin was gaping open at all the BEWILDERED FRESHMEN, while the UPPER CLASSMEN were having the time of their lives.

RALLY

OKTOBERFEST

On October 17, 1982, the Westmont cafetorium was transformed into a miniature Germany. The night came complete with folk dancing, root beer drinking, and streudel eating contests. By the end of the night, all the guests had had their fill of German food, and I'll bet you their feet were really sore from all that dancing.

Somebody goofed.



It couldn't be!

Rally

What do you mean?!

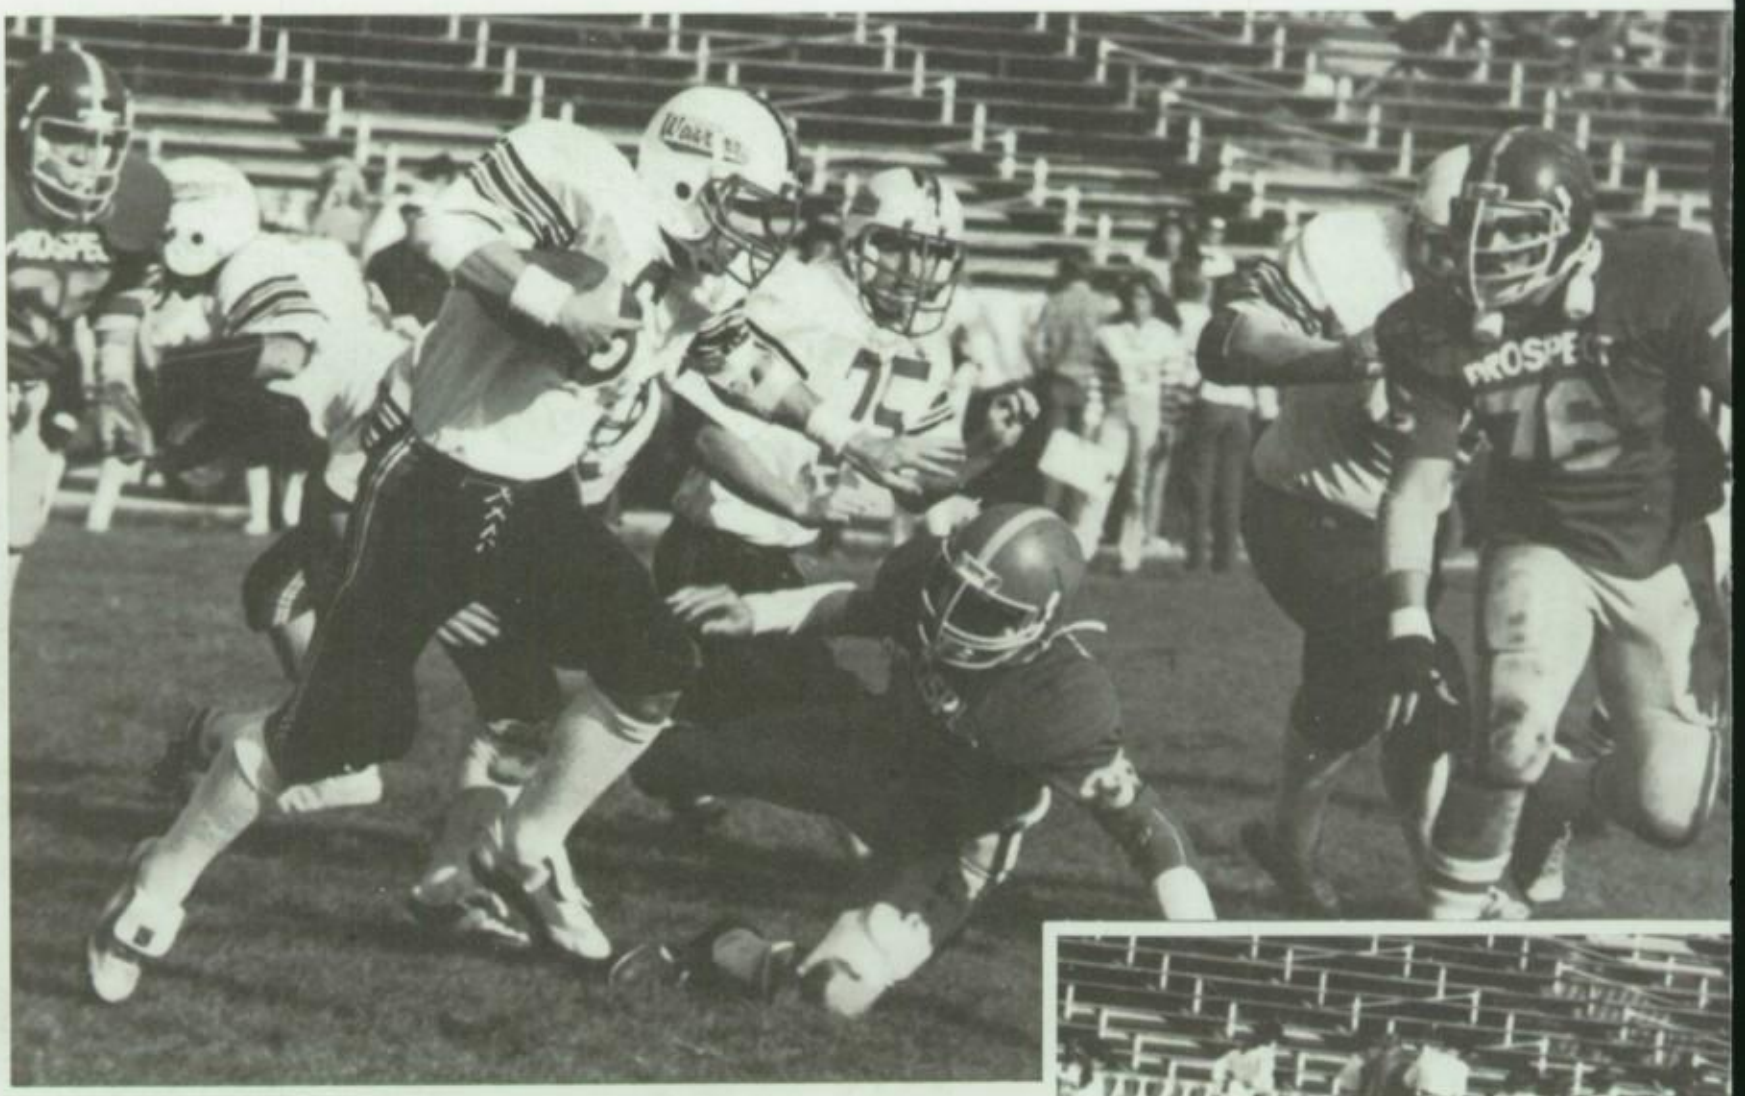
HOMECOMING COURT

This year's newly elected Queen and Princesses danced with their escorts to the traditional first slow dance. This first dance transformed the Homecoming Rally into the Homecoming Dance, which will be thought of by most as a night to be remembered.

Princess Carol Akita, Escort Steve Wedel; Queen Fran Morgan, Escort Todd Shultz; Princess Julie Medefesser, Escort Eric Gustavson

RALLY

The Homecoming Rally was a real booster of spirits for the big game and provided high energy for a great dance. The Rally as usual had it's funny skits , fabulous cheerleaders , and the presentation of the spirit trophy to the Senior Class. It ended with the crowning of the Queen and Princesses.



HOMECOMING GAME

A Prospect Panther

VICTORY!!

On that brisk November afternoon at 2:00, the Panther bowl was jam packed with Westmont Warriors who led their team on to victory. There was a lot of hard hitting and blocking out on the field including some awesome plays to send the Warriors home with a 14 - 9 win over their rivals.

HALF-TIME ENTERTAINMENT

The three lucky ladies who were acclaimed royalty at the rally the night before had the opportunity to present their beauty and grace before a crowd of many.

Those three of course were the Homecoming Princesses and Queen. They paraded around the bowl in their sleek, new, black and red Trans Ams and stood before the crowd to accept their congratulations and roses.

The band played fantastically at half-time. Jim Corrigan had a climactic solo which made the crowd roar. The Drill Team and the Tall Flags finished off the spectacle with a flourish.

Yes, homecoming is a time for memories and thanks to these ladies they will be happy ones.

AS YOU LIKE IT

On December 2, 1982, The Thespian Troupe of Westmont High attempted something never before seen at Westmont. They staged their first Shakespearean production. The play was one of Shakespeare's comedies "As You Like It".

The Troupe was directed by Ed Dubbs, a WHS graduate. He was a new inspiration to all.

The cast did a fantastic job this year with the help of "the rookies" who were eager to try their hands at acting. The crew did a great job as well. The sets and costumes were so well done that the audience felt they had stepped back in time.

Everyone's efforts were soon perfected, and with the support of the Westmont student body, the play was a huge success!

Boy! we can't wait for the sequel.

Special Events

February 11 was the second time Westmont's girls' Varsity team beat Los Gatos, 54-52. Everybody was there including Channel 11. After the victory, Jane Morgan was interviewed before the TV cameras.

A score of events took place this year at Westmont including the following: The Chess Team took League Championship for the second year in a row; Wednesday, October 13, parents came "back-to-school"; Trevor Hunter and Liianna Miller both achieved a second place in the San Jose State Annual Art Show; Juniors finally beat the Seniors at the PowderPuff football game; The PTSA sponsered a Spagetti Feed; Mike Allen went to the Speech and Debate state finals in beautiful San Diego; The Boosters Club had a delicious Enchilada dinner; Mr. Ferries British Literature students had mock weddings followed by family circles; We had a rockin' and rollin' Dance Marathon; At the annual Sadie Hawkin's dance, couples moved to the beat of Wildfire; Both the Girls' and Boys' Varsity Basketball teams made it to the Central Coast Section playoff's; The Girls' Varsity Basketball team went as far as the Northern California Tournament; The Girls' JV Volleyball team placed first in the Alisal tournament out of 12 teams; The Class of 1983 graduated from Westmont High School on June 16.

In this year's Annual American High School Mathematics Examination seventy-five Westmont students competed. Chris Jarvill, Mike Milani, and Lisa Stocking were the highest scoring students in the district, totaling 294. This score went down in the history of Westmont as the highest score ever from our school.

MARDI GRAS

The Mardi Gras celebration goes back to an ancient Roman custom of merrymaking before a period of fast. It is held on the day before lent begins.

It was first introduced to America by the French and became very popular in New Orleans.

The celebration involves parading through the streets in masks and fancy dress. The students at Westmont had a fun time experiencing this tradition.

Everyone had a wonderful time. Here Dave & Sean toast to the future.

Many came dressed in the spirit of the ocasion. There was even a costume contest and Peggy Peterson won first prize.

Everyone had fun participating in the strudel eating contest. Doesn't that look yummy?

Everyone joined in the fun of that old time favorite, musical chairs.

above: The teachers worked as hard and had as much fun as the students did.

left: The Can Can Dancers had everyone clapping at the end of their performance.

Thespians

Among the many, many clubs and activities at Westmont there is one group that deserves special recognition, the drama commission. These students put in hours and hours of work putting together plays for the enjoyment of the student body. Here the future actor learns to act, the future costume designer learns to made fiction come alive, in clothes, the future manager to manage, and the list goes on. For all are working towards the goal of success.

Sitting in the stands at a football game you can't help but notice the band. They are one big family that has grown tremendously. Three years ago the band enrollment was only 30 students. Now, after the arrival of Director Dave Highball, the band has grown to a staggering 75 students.

To be in the band, you have to give a tremendous part of yourself, but that is nothing, compared to what you achieve. Once you become a band member you belong to a new family. One that is always there supporting you in your troubles and congratulating you for your successes. It is a family that learns to work together to achieve a goal. This year the Marching Band's goal was to beat the Prospect High School Marching Band in competition. At the wval Band Jamboree we lost to Prospect by 1/10th of a point. However, later on at the Saratoga Christmas Parade, we beat Prospect High School and won the world's tallest trophy. The band put our school in the Guinness Book of World Records because of that achievement.

Although the choir has not grown in enrollment, it has grown in the quality of the singers. The students in the classroom are there because they want to sing and not because it is a supposedly "easy" class.

The choir performs at all of Westmont's concerts. On Wednesday, December 15, they performed at the Kiwanas Club breakfast. The choir does this every year for the Kiwanis Club. There are three different festivals in the spring where the choir performs: The Foothill College Choir Festival, on Saturday, March 19, the District Choir Festival, on Thursday, April 21, and the CMEA Choir Festival on Saturday, April 30. In all three festivals, the choir did a terrific job.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENTS

This year at Westmont we had three foreign exchange students. Elizabeth Kurlanda (left) came from Hannover, which is in the northern part of Germany. She found some of the American customs quite different from the German ones. Christel D'Haese (right) came from Aalst, Belgium. Christal enjoyed the foreign language clubs at Westmont, since European schools have no extra-curricular programs. Peder Bille (not shown) came to Westmont at the end of first semester from Independence High School. Peder came in September from Aarhus, Denmark, and has enjoyed his semester at Westmont a lot. We wish them a safe trip home and hope that they have fond memories of their year in America.

WAS IST LOS

The German Honor Society has been one of the most active clubs on Westmont's campus. Involving students both in and out of the German classes, the club puts on festivals like the Octoberfest, and participates in Mardi Gras-Carnival. Folkdancing, selling german candy, singing the Schnitzelbank, and Apple Strudel eating contests are all a part of raising the awareness level of Germany's lifestyle and customs. The amount of work poured into these activities was horeadous, but it was well worth the effort. - anonymous

CROSS COUNTRY

Westmont's cross-country team wound up its season with a fourth place varsity team standing at the W.V.A.L. finals meet. Even without a first place title, the team placed well enough to qualify as a team for the regional meet where Todd Strickland took a tenth place victory and Marc Beauchemin finished 19th. Not only did the team do well in their final meet but throughout the year. They competed in five invitational meets, placing second in four of them and third in the fifth. At the end of their season, they came in seventh place in their region.

Westmont beats No. 1 Los Gatos

By Fran Errota
Staff Writer

Girls Basketball

Westmont High School coach Mike Riley was not at a loss for words after his undefeated and No. 4-ranked team edged the top-rated Los Gatos Orange Crush 63-62 Wednesday night.

"The crowd had a lot to do with it — they took away the Orange Crush mystique," Riley said. "That one-minute ovation after our team was introduced really helped us. Our kids were not awed by Los Gatos."

Riley could have mentioned that his team had something to do with the outcome, particularly 5-foot-10 Jane Morgan, who more than lived up to the publicity she has received.

Morgan poured in 37 points, grabbed 19 rebounds and had six assists in the exciting game. She scored on a variety of shots, many of them after rebounding missed Los Gatos shots and driving the length of the court. She made 14 field goals and nine free throws.

The game drew a standing-room-only crowd of 2,000 fans. At least 100 were turned away.

"It was exciting, especially with us winning," Morgan said. "I drove more than usual tonight. I don't know that I played all that well, but I know the other girls were outstanding. Los Gatos is a very good team. It sure feels good to beat the No. 1 team."

John Mackey, the Los Gatos coach, was gracious in defeat, conceding Westmont might be No. 1 — at least until the two West Valley League powers meet again Feb. 10 at Los Gatos.

"I wish detractors of girls basketball could have seen what went on here tonight," Mackey said. "My gosh, was that exciting. Our girls gave every ounce of energy they had; I sure can't fault their effort."

Los Gatos scored the first seven points and led by eight on two occasions (10-2 and 12-4) before Morgan got her team untracked with a pair of field goals, one a turnaround jumper along the baseline and another after taking a rebound under the Los Gatos basket and driving the length of the court for a layup.

However, Westmont trailed until the middle of the second quarter, when it scored 11 straight points for a 26-21 lead. Morgan made two consecutive field goals in the rally, two of them jump shots from the key, along with a free throw that put her team ahead for the first time at 22-21.

Los Gatos regained the lead (29-26) with eight straight points and left the floor at intermission with a 31-30 advantage.

Donna Cunniff, a 5-foot-4 senior guard who turned in a sparkling game, contributed the basket that put Westmont ahead for good at 34-33 early in the second half. Westmont stretched the lead to eight (47-39) before the third period ended.

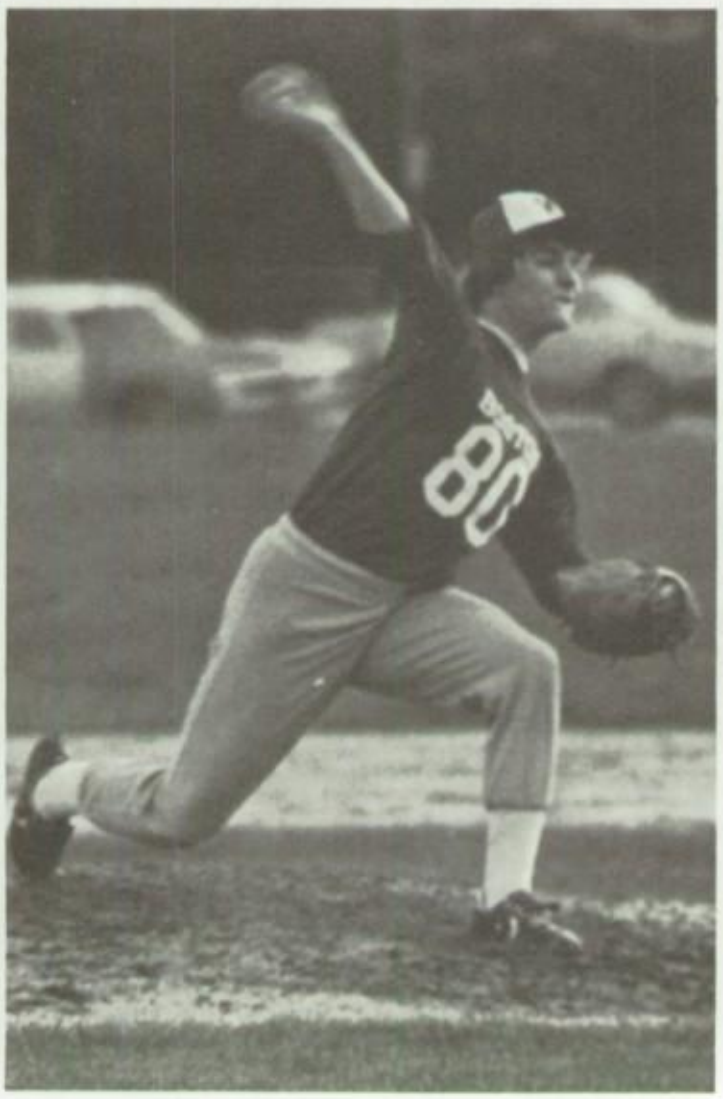
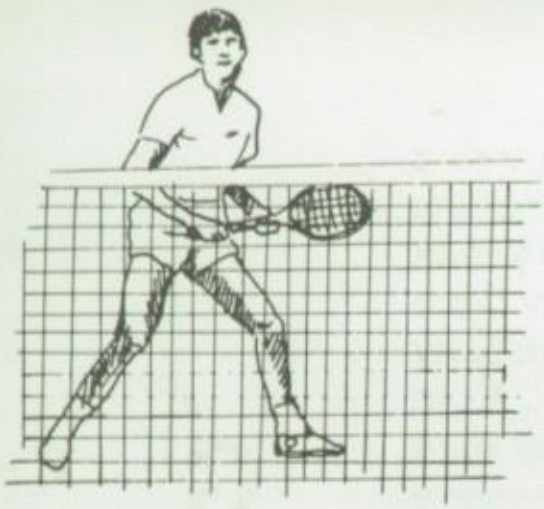
GO TEAM!!

This year's baseball team is in great shape. We have many fantastic returning players as well as promising new ones.

Also considering the fact that we had such an impressive record last year, the prediction for this year is that our Frosh/Soph and Varsity teams will be victorious.





BOYS TENNIS

The Boys Tennis team has shown tremendous talent this year. With such a wide variety of young athletes showing so much dedication & determination, how could we lose?

All of us enjoyed the fabulous 1983 season.

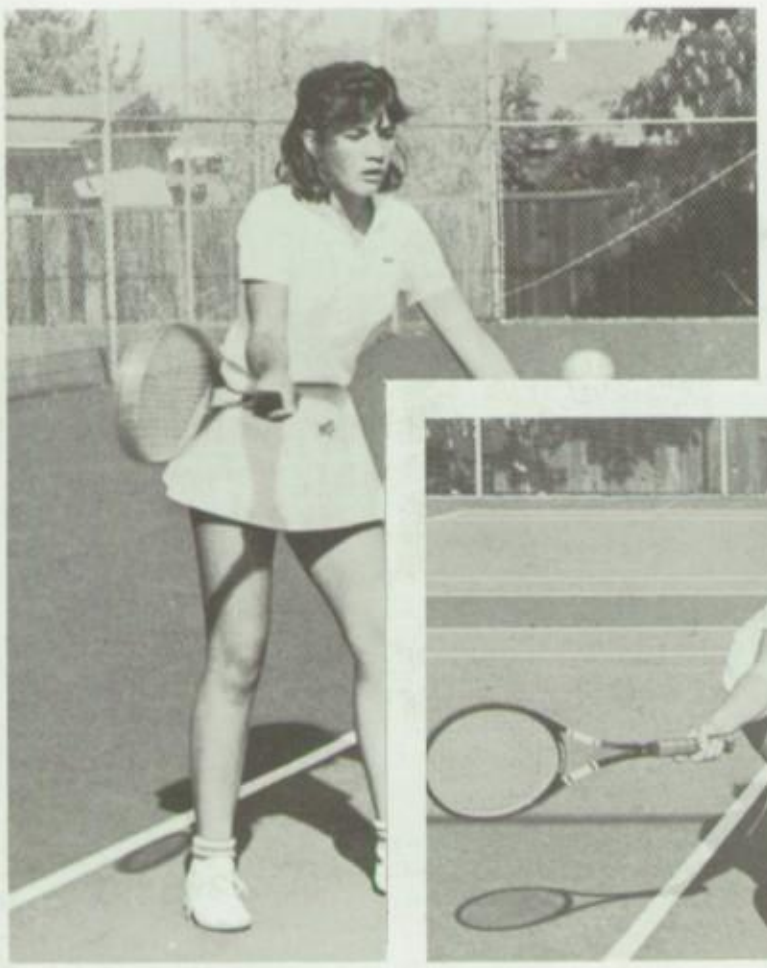
GIRLS TENNIS



Trophies don't always show how well a team works together. This is the case of the Westmont Tennis team. Although they took sixth place out of eight teams, they were able to achieve something that no trophy could take the place of: teamwork. Even though they had their problems, they were a close team. They were what a team really is — individuals who work hard and get along well with each other. Personal Congratulations to: Patty Clay - Freshman — Played #1 Singles, Renee Shiota - Senior — Played #2 Singles, Francie Marx - Senior — Played #3 Singles, Kristi Plog and Sheri Nolan - Seniors — Played #1 Doubles, Shauna Smith and Ann Huelman - Seniors — Played #2 Doubles

SOFTBALL

The team had quite a bit of trouble getting practice in this year because of the rainy weather. Even a few of their games were cancelled because of it.

It didn't stop them for long though, and with a little hard work and dedication they came through with a terrific 1983 season.

VOLLEYBALL!!

There's more than hard work, and getting in shape being on the Varsity Volleyball team. As you can see, it is also a lot of fun.

This year the team did remarkably well. Its captain, Coral Madsen, was the only returning varsity player from last year, but having all new members didn't hold them back. Together they worked well as a team and prepared themselves even better for the future year!

Volley News:

Placing first in the Alisol Tournament, and second in the league, the J.V. volleyball team did extremely well this year.

The team's spirit, and enthusiasm was very high, which showed.

Luckily for Westmont, most of the players are just beginning. This is great news for the upcoming year. The returning players will strengthen our Westmont volleyball team even more as they progress. So WATCH OUT "1984"!!

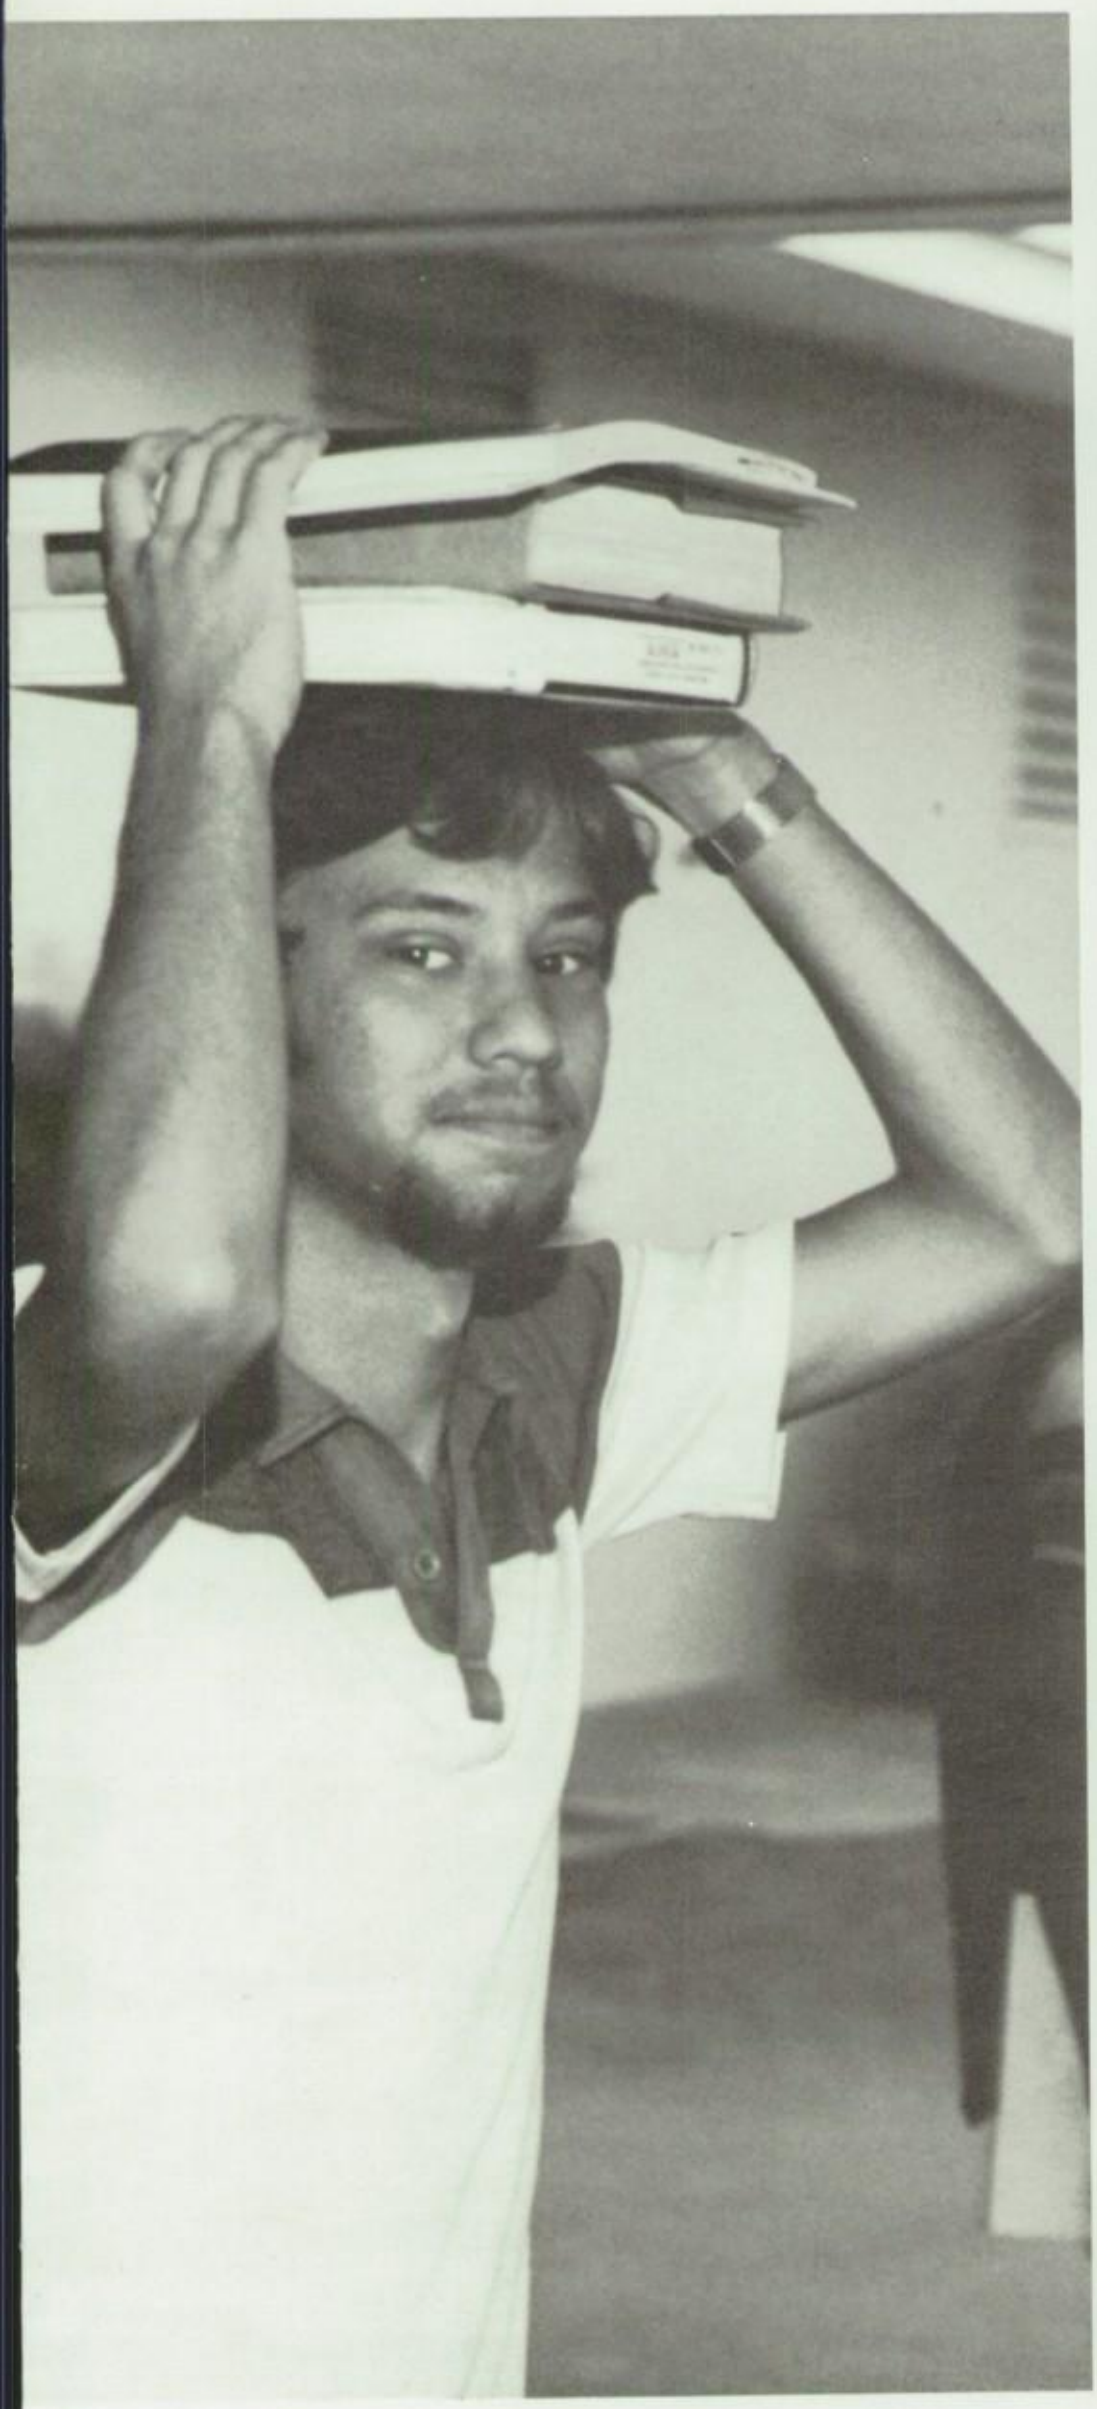
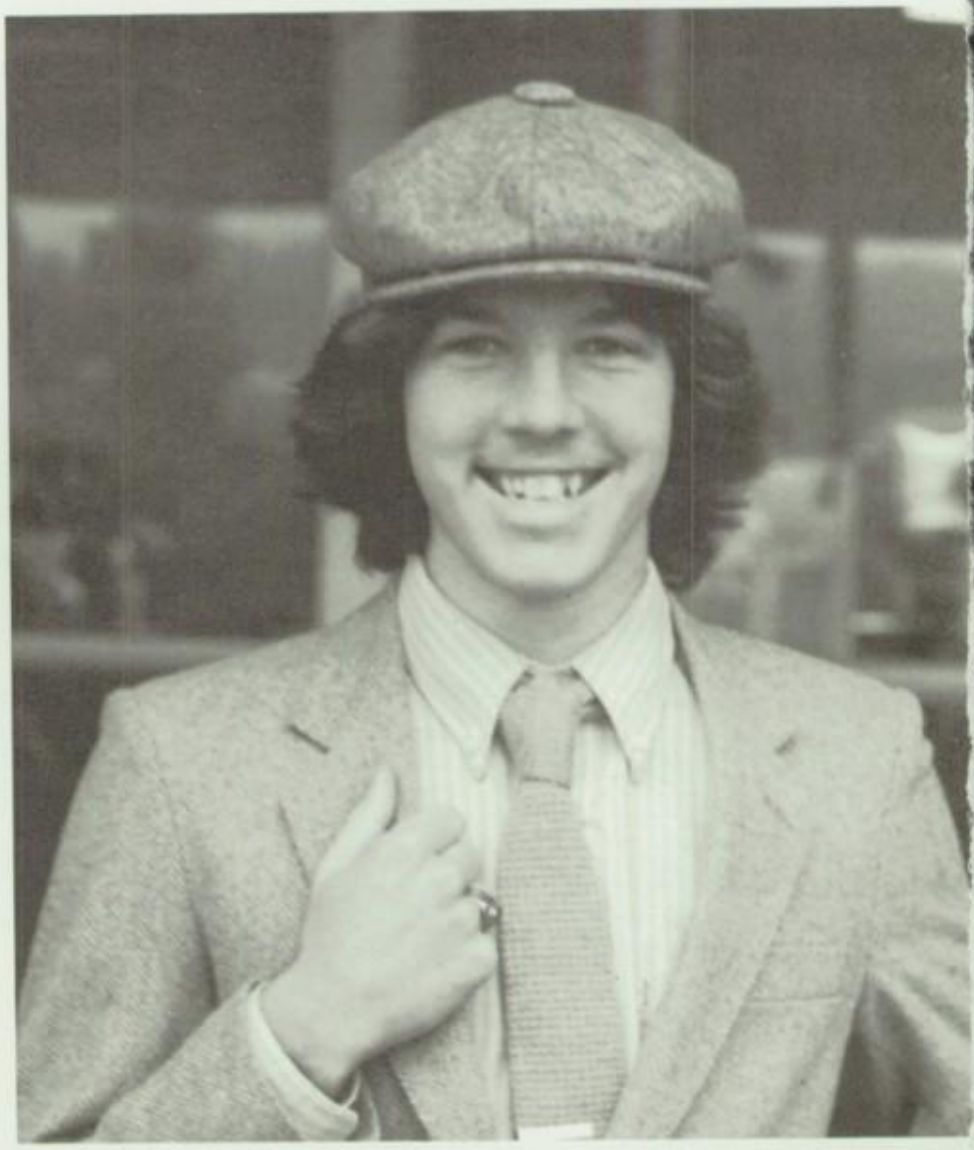
SENIOR SECTION

THE CLASS OF 1993





But that phase ended, too. And now I am a senior. I have no idea how the freshmen, sophomores, and juniors look at me, how they evaluate me—if they pay any attention at all. I know that I'm not perfect—as I imagined all seniors must be. I'm not the best looking, the strongest, the most intelligent. I suppose you could say that I've become more realistic as I've grown older. If I've learned to try harder ("senioritis", what's that?), I've also learned that perfection is just something in the imagination of freshman students. Because my real experiences have been better than perfection . . . the way school opened with no numbers on the doors and the master clock stopped dead . . . this being the graduating class with the last of the Campbell kids . . . that great run by Kenny Roberts that made us all jump to our feet at the homecoming game . . . the juniors beating us in the Powder Puff Game (Gag!) . . . the food fight that turned the back of my white coat orange from Thousand Island dressing . . . and Greg Skarmas dripping with chocolate milk . . . which he threw upon himself . . . Tim Reinhardt getting his traditional E on writing day . . . AS YOU LIKE IT was . . . hiding from my friends that knew I hadn't gotten my driver's license until this year ("I became a REAL PERSON") . . . the Westmont election campaign that ended up off campus when posters appeared . . . the band winning the 32ft. high trophey . . . Dan Casey drawing, playing Touchstone—those great tights . . . Fur sure, Karlene . . . D.O.R.K.'S . . . Group Counseling . . . the seagulls in the quad . . . the Holocaust . . . Jane Morgan averaging 32 points a game . . . the wins . . . the losses . . .

The reality has been well, real. It hasn't been what I expected. But then, what is. I dreamt of being a senior and now I am one. I've decided that I'm not going to make a choice. The dream's still there, somewhere, stashed along with those embarrassing memories of my underclassman years. But I won't give it up, not now. Without the dream, what fun's the reality?

IS IT A DREAM OR A REALITY?

Until this year, I'd dreamt of being a senior without knowing how it felt. Now, I'm trying to decide which I prefer, the dreams I had or the reality I'm currently experiencing.

Back when I was a freshman, I thought of my senior year as existing in some impossible distant future. In a way, I don't think I really believed that I'd ever get to be a senior. Seniors were so much older, more mature, physically stronger (especially those enormous varsity football players who sat next to me in cooking class), mentally superior (the things they knew!)

The girls were so good looking, the guys so handsome! Would I ever be that attractive?

As a sophomore—and later as a junior—I began to realize that seniors were actually human beings, people—just like me! And I began to find fault with them. They weren't so perfect after all. Why, I knew kids in my own class who were just as smart, just as strong, just as good looking; in fact, sometimes we were better. Seniors—they weren't such a big deal. As a matter of fact, I hoped that I wouldn't act like that when I got to my last year in high school.

FACULTY AND STAFF

IN DEDICATION

Mrs. Bebb has been teaching for many years now, and is one of Westmont's favorite teachers. She is always willing to help students when they need it. Her work with CSF and Honor Society has given aid to many students. Her presence at numerous student sponsored events has shown that she really cares. We, the class of 1983, care about you too, Mrs. Bebb. In our appreciation we have dedicated this yearbook to you. Thank you for being there.

"As you enter into a new and very important period of your life it is my hope that each of you will be successful in finding a challenging and rewarding career."

TO THE FUTURE

BYE!!!

Eddie,
I've really enjoyed this year. I hope you have too. Senior years are the best. I wish we would have done more things together this year but I've had problems with Jer. Remember when we were in the parking lot and you asked me out well when I said "yes" I wasn't joking. I've always wanted to go out with you it is just the matter of doing it. You're a really sweet, cute and very attractive guy. I'm going to miss you around campus cheering me up. I'll be at West Valley if you have the urge to come see me there. Please do. I'll be there every day next fall from 7:30 AM - 2:30 PM I want to see you this summer sometime too. Maybe we can go to the Delta and spend the weekend skiing. Boy, do I wish I would have fell when I passed you there. Then you could have swam out after me, or else just call to save me. Oh well I'll remember next time. write to me if you go away somewhere or else just call me anytime! If I'm not home leave your name + number so I can call you back. Maybe sometime soon we can go somewhere and do something wild + crazy. we could go to one of the games. I love to watch those guys out on the field, it's fun. If you want to tell me + we can go. I can get the tickets so tell me for sure when. Boy, Did I write a lot. I never thought I'd be writing this much. I really am going to miss you so please call even late at night when I get your number you think of me. I'll be calling you too when I get your number so I get a lot of urges late at night to talk to people so I guarantee you'll get at least 100 phone calls. I want a senior picture of you too. Please call

CALL NOW!

Love always

Hey Ed,
What's up?
I hope you're do good
Keep up that old crazy weirdness of yours
someday it will get you somewhere.
Well Ed, we had a good beach day at school and we'll have to get a few others together and go out and do some partying.
Keep your moto and maybe we'll have to go out riding.
Just remember those great school lunches that I know you loved!
Take it easy with yourself
over the summer.

What's happening?
It has been a blast in Coach COSTANZO's class.
He was pretty cool at times and then again he was a ____. Anyways (filling) hope you have a great summer.
May your years to come be filled with some exciting stuff. Good luck in all you do.

Eddie, Yo my lover, I can't believe your actually gonna be gone next year. I'm so glad we are friends, you are great. I hope, we always stay really close, even though I won't see you next year. You better call me this summer, so we can go to some rad. parties. We can go out, get drunk and, well whatever. Really though, I really love you, you are a total sweetheart & a babe. You better call me this summer, or I'll just have to come over & beat the shit out of you. Well, take care and don't get in trouble! I love you and you know it!!

Love always,

Uncle Eddie-

Hey, your the best uncle. What am I gonna do without you? Whos gonna stick up for me? Well I just wanted to wish you the very best of luck. Can you believe that in just 4 days — no more high school? Your graduating! Well, I'm glad that we met, and I hope that I can still be your favorite niece, and you better keep in touch!

P.S. you better come back and see me graduate in 2 years.

The Best of Luck, and all my love and Friendship
